

DOMESTIC ABUSE ADVOCACY

HELPING SERVICES
for Youth & Families

Abuse is a pattern of behaviors intended to control another individual and can occur in various relationships

Abuse is never the survivor's fault!

We are here to empower survivors, encourage bystander intervention, and prepare communities to provide appropriate and helpful responses to survivors

DOMESTIC ABUSE RESOURCE CENTER

Free and Confidential Services

24-HOUR RESOURCE LINE

1-800-383-2988 OR

HELPINGSERVICES.ORG/CHAT

Domestic abuse survivors can call or chat for confidential, free help —every hour and day.

ADULT & BILINGUAL ADVOCACY

Survivors receive counseling and assistance regarding options for their safety, such as securing protective orders or transitional housing. On behalf of clients, advocates work with medical staff, law enforcement, attorneys, and other providers.

CHILD AND TEEN ADVOCACY

Counseling and support groups give children and teens who have witnessed abuse or have been abused safe spaces to discuss their experiences.
